it's plain to see,
To walk alone, you have to be—
It's all for you
and all for me;
You'll see.

I'm going to miss you;
Yes I will.
No matter who you are,
I love you still.

Will I make it through the summer?
Breaking ties with the old and new;
Losing one just gains another.
There is nothing I can do . . .

"I suppose you're wondering why I called you all here today," says principal Dan Clifford. The scene was the annual faculty tea

Dave Hudson takes a moment to lean back and ponder the words of wisdom close at foot. Dave was one of our bright, new interns.

Here Come The Faculty

Administration

Last year marked MR DAN CLIFFORD'S sixth year as principal at Astoria High School. In his spare time he liked to hunt, fish, and shoot pool. Mr Clifford enjoyed attending the athletic events. After moving to Astoria he became active in the Rotary Club and served as president two years ago.

DALE EVANS served four years as vice-principal. He was also the coach of the golf team and, when he could, shot a few rounds himself. Mr. Evans also liked fishing and bowling.

VINCE DULCICH, athletic director, not only spent his hours at school involved in sports, all his free time was devoted to athletics also. When there wasn't an Astoria game, he could be found at one of the college games.

FRAN SCHLIESKI liked to sew, ski, tole paint, and take long walks on the beach. In addition to counseling she was the advisor for Girls' League.

JOHN DAHLSTON, guidance counselor, spent much of his spare time raising vegetables on his farm. He loved the outdoors and enjoyed any activity that allowed him to be there. Mr. Dahlston was also Boys' Federation advisor.

ANNA MARIE FRIEDRICHS, the head counselor, had many hobbies. She liked to tole paint, sew, embroider, crochet, knit, read, and remodel. Miss Friedrichs served as A.F.S. advisor.

Librarians

MARJORIE HALDERMAN, head librarian, liked to travel. Most of her spare time was spent at home last year. She takes pride in her house which was built in 1863.

MRS. NORA BUE liked to baby-sit her grandson Darrin. Many of her free moments were spent aiding our elderly citizens. She also enjoyed sewing.

Office Staff

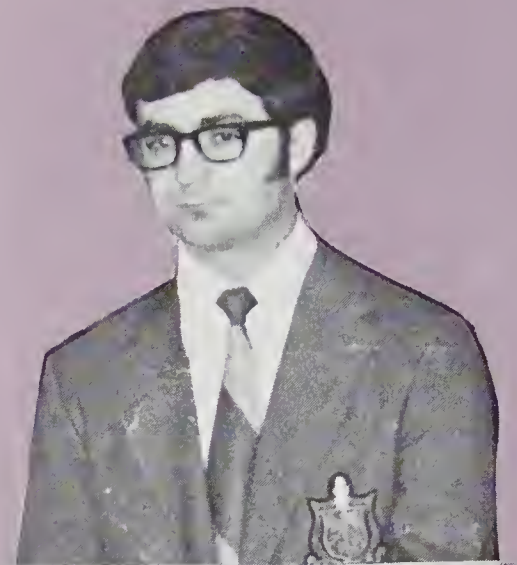

MRS. KEN PETERSEN could have been out working in her garden on those days when she wasn't behind her typewriter at Astoria High School.

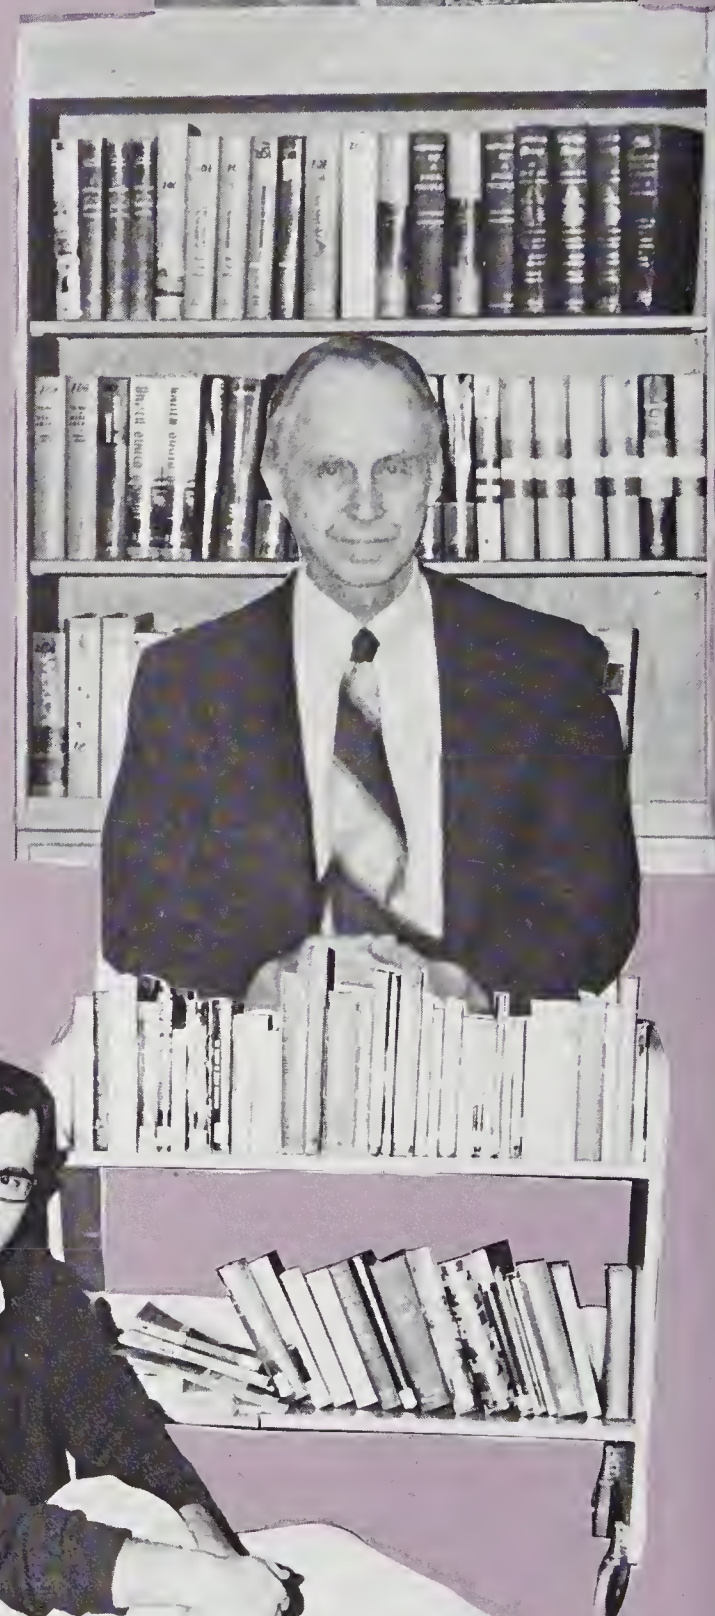

MRS. DOROTHY WELFLEY, secretary to the guidance department, looked forward to summer camping. She liked gardening, reading, and crocheting.

ALMA CLARKE, head secretary, tried to find spare time last winter to read. During the summer months she enjoyed sport fishing the area offered.

Social Science

Sophomore basketball coach DON HEUBERGER taught World History, Modern Problems, and Sociology. When he got the chance he liked working with pottery. U. S. History and Latin teacher CARL CARLSON liked to read and clear land when he got the chance. This is Mr. Carlson's fifteenth year at Astoria High and he was Junior class advisor during it.

AL OLSON taught World History. Whenever he was not teaching and got the chance, he loved to go fishing. He also enjoyed sports and made model boats in his spare time. Mr. Olson received his B. A. in World History at Oregon College of Education and this was his fourth year at A.H.S.

Head of the Social Science department last year, MICHAEL FOSTER taught Modern Problems, besides working with the Zephyrus staff. He has travelled to Afghanistan and has also taught classes at Clatsop College in Asian History and Antiques. He owned a small shop downtown called Michael's Antique's.

Department

teaching, photography, and World History were DAVE BOWMAN'S fields of teaching as he finished his fourth year here. Dave spent his free time travelling and making films. CHARLES SARIN taught Modern Problems and Political Science and enjoyed teaching as a profession. He also enjoyed working with politics and public affairs. His life dream was owning a 4-wheel drive vehicle. STEVE PUTNAM returned to O.C.E. after student teaching during the first part of the year in Modern Problems and Political Science.

ROSE TOLONEN, U. S. History teacher and head of Cadet Teaching, had a stamp collection in her pastime. She also liked to read and work in her garden. PHYLLIS REUTER, Social Studies Resource aid, thoroughly enjoyed looking up the students' assignments. Outside of school she liked to read, listen to music, and work in her garden.

English

MISS HILDENBRAND had been teaching for 6 years, but this was her last year, as she returned to school. As an extracurricular activity, she was one of the advisors for Girls' League. Out of school she crocheted, knitted, and enjoyed cooking.

After graduating from Astoria High School, in 1969, MISS MARCIA MOBERG returned to student teach in the English Department and then returned to O.S.U.

As a senior advisor, MR. PRICE taught for nine years. At home he enjoyed photography, and writing for hobbies.

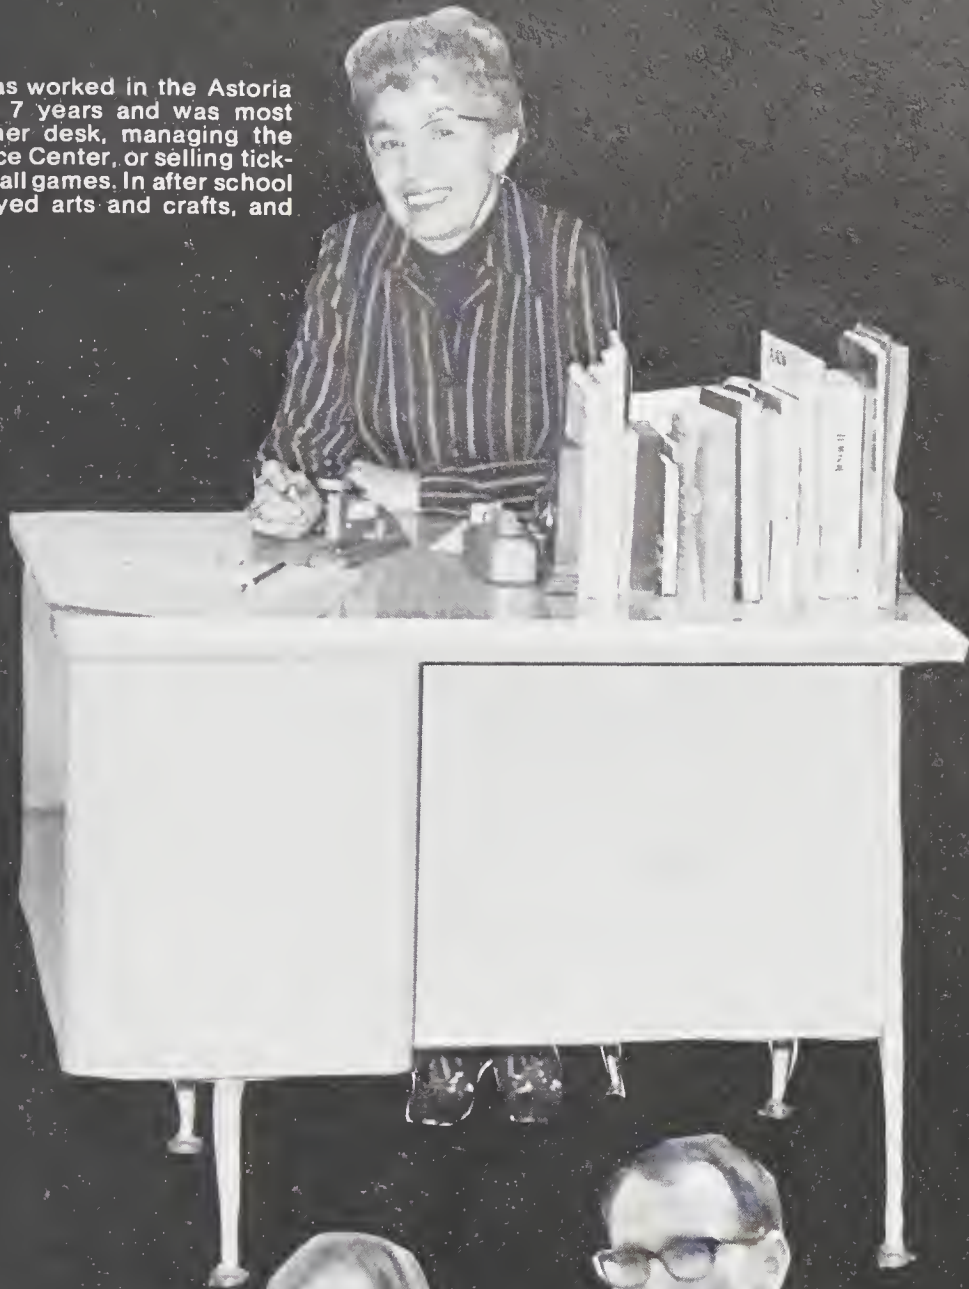

MRS. SWANSON who was the head of the English Department, had been teaching for 12 years at AHS. She was the advisor for F.T.A., and National Honor Society. Once off school, she relaxed by reading and cooking.

MR. HUDSON was in actuality the famed Assistant Coach of the High School track team. Being such an athletic man, it's only natural that outside school, his activities ranged from handball and skiing and his wife, who joins him in these sports. This was his first year teaching.

MRS. DAVIS has worked in the Astoria School System 7 years and was most often seen at her desk, managing the English Resource Center, or selling tickets at Astoria's ball games. In after school hours she enjoyed arts and crafts, and loved animals.

Department

MR. ALBORN taught for 11 years at A.H.S. As extracurricular activities, he's known as the advisor for 3 important literary areas, Quill and Scroll, Astor Post, and Impressions. His hobbies included singing in a choir, swimming, hiking (but not as of late), reading, and of course, writing.

Raising rabbits, hunting, and fishing, were the relaxing hobbies MR. FORRESTER enjoyed after a hard day of teaching English. He's been teaching for six years, and was the service club advisor.

MISS DORIS MATSEN was another intern at Astoria High School. Out of school, she experimented in the art of French cooking, was enthusiastic about modern dance, and dabbled in astronomy, astrology, and fencing. Miss Matsen was also the assistant advisor for rally and pepsters for an extra activity.

Drivers' Ed., Math And Science Depts

ROSS PUTMAN spent his last year here at Astoria High as Drivers' Education teacher. His hobbies were watching birds and amateur radio. He also liked to fish. He fished commercially for salmon and tuna in the summer. He refereed basketball in the winter and was head Varsity baseball coach. Another of his activities in Astoria High was being head of the fire and civil defense program. Other than teaching Drivers' Education, TED SARPOLA enjoyed hunting and fishing. He has a shack in Brownsmead where he and his kids could go duck hunting. In the summer, he went camping and bicycling. He also enjoyed drawing and painting when he got the chance.

DOUG SCHLIESKI was in his fifth year at Astoria High as chairman of the Math department. He enjoyed drinking beer and going to the beach. BOB SCOTT spent his twenty-third year at Astoria High. Mr. Scott was both a math and science teacher and was in Science Club. He was also commanding officer in Clatsop Chapter of the Civil Air Patrol.

JOE WARNER spent his fifth year here in the Science Department and was also Science Club advisor. Besides teaching, Mr. Warner enjoyed golfing, bowling, water skiing, fishing, hunting, and camping.

ELDON KORPELA headed up the fish hatchery project this year which was just getting under way. This was his seventh year here in which he spent part of his time as ski club advisor. He also liked to mend net, play golf, go duck hunting, tinker around with his boat, and watch sports.

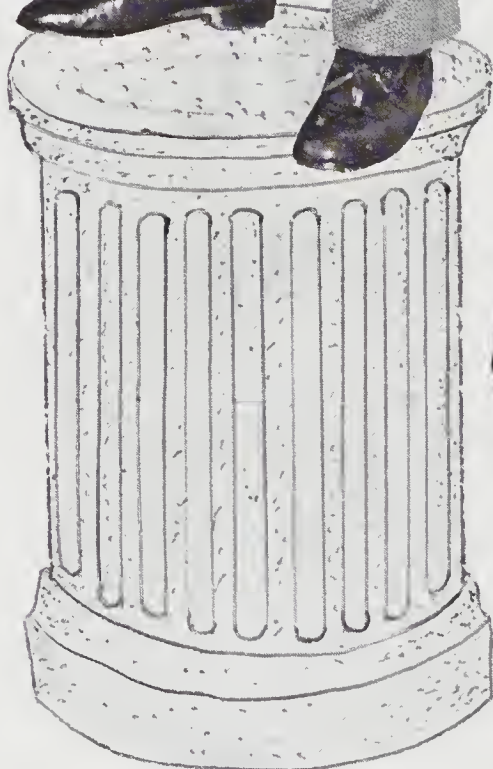

AL McKAY spent his tenth year at Astoria High in the Science Department as Biology teacher. He was also Sophomore class advisor. In his spare time he traveled, enjoyed gardening, fishing, and hiking. BILL REUTER'S hobbies included reading, traveling, and theater work. Besides teaching math, Mr. Reuter was advisor of Mu Alpha Theta as he closed out his sixteenth year at Astoria High.

Foreign Language,

P. E.,

And

Left to right: MISS BOWERLY, teaches French and German after spending a year in Germany. She is Service Club Advisor, and enjoys outdoor sports, bicycle riding, and brussel sprouts.

MR. VALADEZ, doubles both as a High School and Junior High Spanish teacher, and enjoys tennis and traveling. MR. BURNS, P.E. Instructor along with head football and J.V. Basketball coaching posts, loves working with youth and camping with his family throughout the N.W.

MR. DOMINEY, P.E. Instructor, both Track and Cross-Country Coach, along with assistant Wrestling Coach, enjoys physical conditioning and is head of the Marine Physical Fitness Team, also has one big hobby, his son. MISS HEWITT, P.E. Instructor along with both Girls' Volleyball Coach and G.A.A. Advisor, enjoys outdoor activities and is single.

Business Departments

Left to right: MS KLESSIG teaches Office Practice Shorthand I and II, Typing Review, and Typing I. Along with her Senior Advisor Activities, she enjoys raising horses. MR FLUHARTY teaches Typing I, Typing Review, Briefhand and Accounting. He enjoys his referee responsibilities and received his B.S. from University of Idaho. MS BROWN, P.E. Instructor, majoring in Physical Education, head of the P.E. Department, also teaches Typing, along with being the Girls' Basketball and Track Coach. She enjoys golf, art, and music. MR JACOBSON, teaches Bookkeeping I, Business Law, and Economics I. He doubles as the head basketball and assistant football coach.

Fine Arts, A.V., Industries

BILL GUNDERSON has been teaching art for the past 21 or 22 years, and to the spirited students of A.H.S. He is known as Spirit & Morale Advisor.

At the right is MR. JENSEN. He is in charge of the A.V. equipment. In his spare time he enjoyed electronics, mountain climbing, and photography. Below is KURT DAVIS. In his first year of teaching he became a coach for three different school events. He was one of the J.V. Football Coaches, along with Head Coach of the Varsity Wrestling Squad. He taught Speech and was the Coach for it. One of the activities he enjoyed outside the regular school day was outdoor recreation.

MR. CHAPMAN enjoyed being in productions produced by the Civic Theater. He instructed U.S. and World History Classes for the first time. He has taught five years at Astoria High School.

MR. HOFFMAN owned a 960 acre ranch in South Dakota. He has taught 5 years at A.H.S.

MR. HUHTALA has taught 13 years at A.H.S. He enjoyed fishing and wood construction.

Hunting, fishing, and all around outdoor sports were what MR. JOHNSON liked. Wood Shop is the class in which he instructed. He has taught nine years at Astoria High School.

To the right is MRS. BARBARA GRAYUM. As the Home Ec. classes turned into specialized areas, Mrs. Grayum taught cooking and sewing. She was also Rally and Pepster Advisor. To the left is MR. WATADA. He taught Mechanical Drawing, Architecture, and Interior Design. He enjoyed watching football during the season.

Music And Home Ec.

At the right is MR. PHELPS. He has taught Music Appreciation and Choir at A.H.S. He enjoyed golf, fishing, and tinkering around with electronics. He has been at the High School for three years. To the left is MR. STROMQUIST. This was the first year he had taught band at the High School in Astoria. He was also the director of our stage band, which performed at our sporting events.

I.E.D.

In his first year, KEITH BRAMWELL teaches third year Vocational Agriculture to interested and serious students. KENT POULSEN has taught Electronics I & II at the I.E.D. for two years. All of the I.E.D. teachers work for the Intermediate Education District and teach all over the county.

CHARLES LAIRD, one of the I.E.D.'s three Auto Mechanics teachers, has been with the Astoria School District and I.E.D. for three years. DARRYL HARTUNG teaches Vocational Agriculture I & II for the I.E.D. This is his first year with Astoria. The I.E.D. secretary for two years, PENNY VANDERSHULE helps with the I.E.D.'s important business.

Department

FRED MESTRICH has been teaching Auto Mechanics I at Astoria for three years. ROGER SCHOENBORN, director at the I.E.D., has been with the program since its beginning on July 1, 1968.

ART ALVE has also taught Auto Mechanics I for three years. The Auto Mechanics II teacher for five years is PHIL EVERETT.

Students

With a committee of talented girls behind an organization, how can it possibly go wrong? Girls' League is the name of such a club, made to include all girls in its membership. During the year they carried out a variety of projects. One of these was the traditional Girls' League Week with different activities each day, including a look-alike day for big and little sisters, and a fashion show. Then there was the Father-Daughter Banquet, with the theme, "There's No Friend Like a Father." Entertainment was provided by the Speech and Drama classes and Music Department. As always there were candy sales, and an after game dance, plus several assemblies. With the coming came the Mother-Daughter Banquet. By the end of the year, many girls were much better acquainted, thanks to the efforts of Girls' League.

Girls' League

The Father-Daughter Banquet was serenaded by a trumpet trio, composed of Susan Koskela, Jim Huber, and Robert Nordstrom.

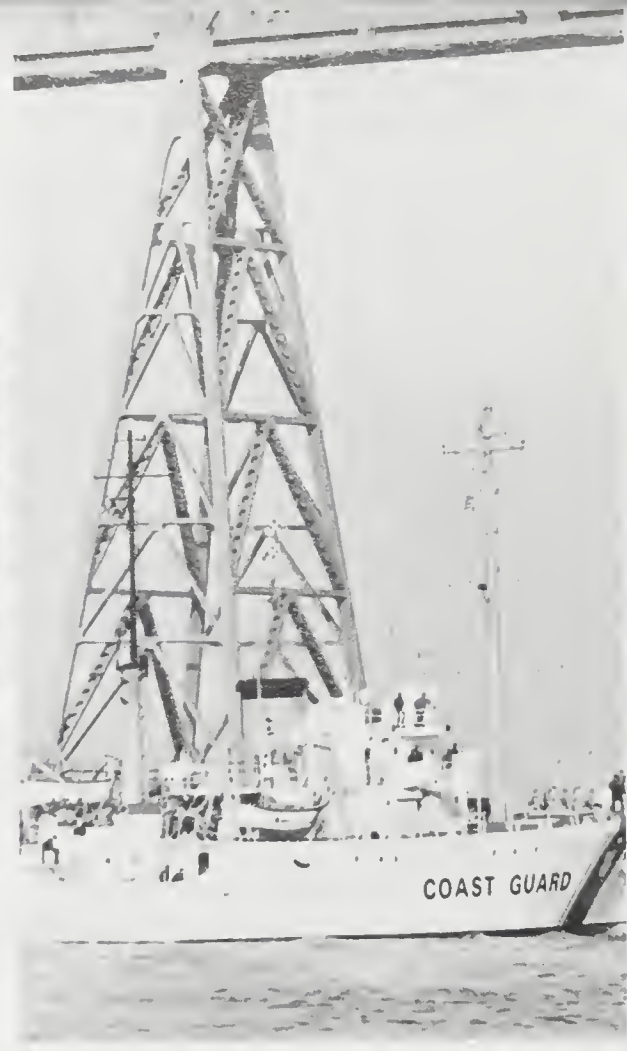

Connie Clausen and Sara Richberg preside during a Girls' League meeting.

Thor Pattee and Judy Angberg enjoy the after game dance sponsored by Boys' Federation.

Two of the assemblies, on Forestry and the Coast Guard, are represented here

Boys' Federation

Despite an overwhelming populace, Boys' Federation, came to the close of a successful year. Its large membership is due to the fact that all boys at AHS belong to it. On the agenda for the year, were several assemblies, one which was on forestry, while another on the Coast Guard. An additional activity was the aftergame dance, featuring "Family Tradition." The boys also held meetings, planning ahead for future functions. One that was in the making was the setting up of a fund, with which to create a scholarship. Perhaps without the existence of this club, many boys would feel the need to start one.

The new members anxiously wait to sign the scroll.

The first year Drama students put on the annual Children's Production last January. Grade school children from all eight grade schools attended the performances of "The Clown Prince of Wanderlust."

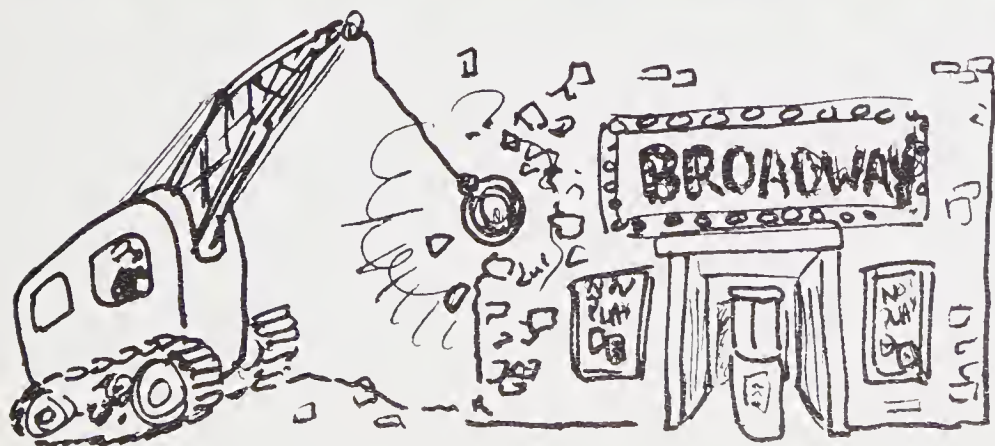

One Acts And Children's Production

The Festival of One Act Plays went on as scheduled, despite the fact that there was no Sophomore play. Shown above are two scenes from the Junior Play, "The Mystery of Mouldy Manor."

Becky Mills, Michelle Ames, Anne Clifford, and Chuck Gustafson rehearse a scene where cruel hearted Ruby is reminded by Joan of Ruby's own meager beginnings as an actress

Isn't Jean Harlow or even Greta Garbo. It's you, it's you, it's you," Chuck Gustafson sings to Michelle Ames as they dance and sing out their new-found love to the song, "It's You."

Comely chorus line consists of Michele Hemphill, Terri Chisum, Dana McKinney, Leanna Clark, Arlene Orwick, Penny Wilson, Janey Povall, Vicki Smith and Jean Morrison. These lovely young ladies backed up many of the songs done in the play. Below: Chuck Gustafson plays and sings the song "Broadway Baby," the story of a young sailor who falls in love with a girl and imagines himself a famous songwriter and she a Broadway star.

Rocky Mills, Bill Hall, David Shawa, Michelle Ames, and Chuck Gustafson wind up the play with the song, "Good Times Are Here to Stay."

American Field Service

Janey Povall, Astoria High School's exchange student, was mistress of ceremonies at the annual fund raising banquet for American Field Service. Entertainment for the banquet was provided by A.F.S. students from around the area.

Jeanne Lake, Astoria's A.F.S. student who had recently returned from Australia, also gave an informative talk on her adventures.

Many talented students from Astoria also contributed to the program. The banquet was termed a great success by all who attended.

Maria Jaaskela tells about her native customs, while Janey Povall Astoria's A.F.S. student listens attentively

Jan Methi, the A.F.S. student from Norway, uses his exceptional talent in music to entertain an attentive audience

Entertainment for the A.F.S. banquet had some of Astoria high students participating. Here Fred Hayes is doing an interpretive dance

During the A.F.S. Banquet, Janey Povall presented Mr. and Mrs. Orwick and Arlene with pins of recognition. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Berney look on.

Before the A.F.S. Banquet, a social hour took place, where foreign students got to know Astorians who are involved with A.F.S.

The Astoria chapter of Mu Alpha Theta is an original chapter founded in 1957. It is an honorary society for mathematically-academically inclined students. They must be in their third year of higher mathematics and have maintained a 3.0+ in Math and a 3.0+ in all their subjects. Each year every member takes part in the National Math Contest. This test rates each student in math on a national percentage.

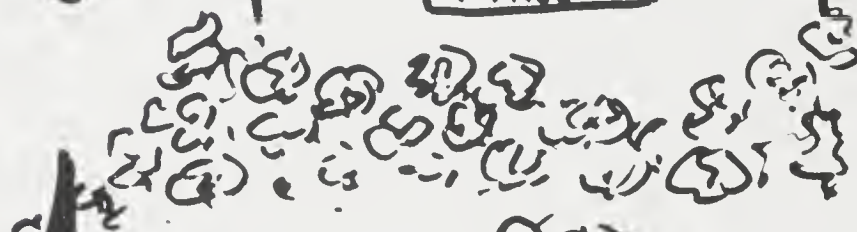

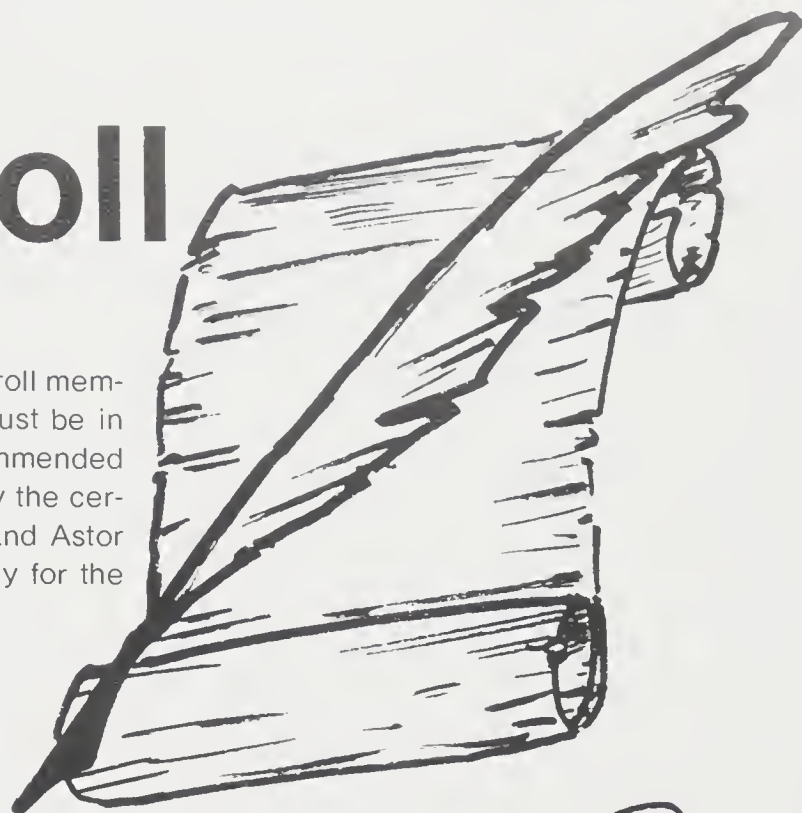

Quill And Scroll

Outstanding work in journalism is one of the qualifications for Quill and Scroll membership. New members meeting this and other requirements, such as: must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing, or be recommended by the supervisor, were initiated at a picnic held at the beach. Traditionally the ceremony is a formal affair, held at an area restaurant. Both the Zephyrus and Astor Post Staff members found the informality this year much more fun. Money for the picnic was earned through the efforts of B.S.G.M. Enterprises.

F.T.A. And Student Teaching

Shelley Magnuson, a senior, taught music to all grades at Astor Elementary and later transferred to Gray School. The Cadet Teaching course is designed to give students interested in pursuing a teaching career a chance to learn what it's all about.

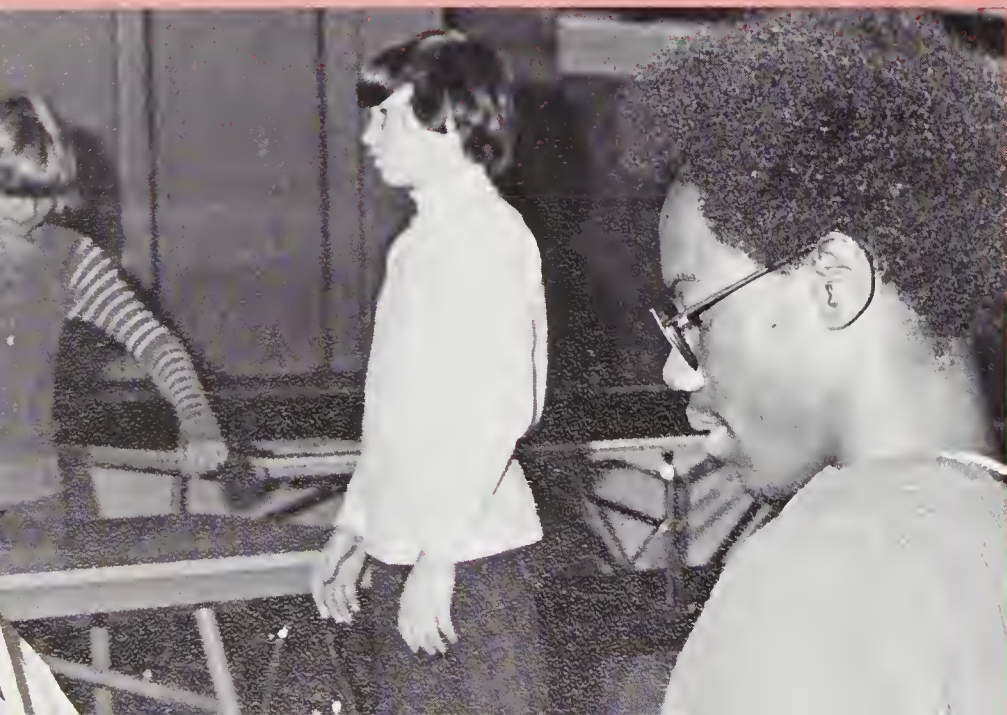

Kathy Chan helps students at Astor Elementary School with their reading skills. Kathy was a first grade teacher's assistant.

The F.T.A. officers for this year were, bottom: Nanci Nerenberg, President, Susan Hartlieb, Vice President. Top: Julie Leonhardt, Secretary, Susan Goodenberger, Treasurer, and Linda Corbin, Historian.

Sue Hagerup reads a story with a third grader at Astor Elementary.

Fred Hayes helped out at the Junior High, where he taught Composite English with Mr. Curlev and 9th Grade English with Mrs. Edv.

Chess Club

"And I was sure he wouldn't see that move," Steve Hendrickson seems to be thinking as he matches wits with Doug Bowlsby.

Proof that chess is not just a man's game. Cathy Christie and Robin Laakso showed up at the tournament to play a few games.

Jim Dulcich contemplates a move.

Allan Goff looks a bit perturbed as Rick Becker makes a move that helped him win the game, Allan's only loss.

Choir

Although the Astoria High School choir was small, they have produced a very impressive sound this year. Some of the events the choir took part in this year were singing for the reopening of the Astor Library on Mondays, and at Christmas, they performed in a joint assembly with members of the Senior Class. They spread their joy and cheer to many old people throughout the community when they went caroling at Crestview Convalescent Center. They also sold Christmas records to buy new choir robes for the girls. This year the choir played host to many other schools when the Coast-Valley League Choir Festival was held here in Astoria.

Sheryl Haskell, the little match girl is backed up by the members of the Choir and Senior Class in the Christmas assembly.

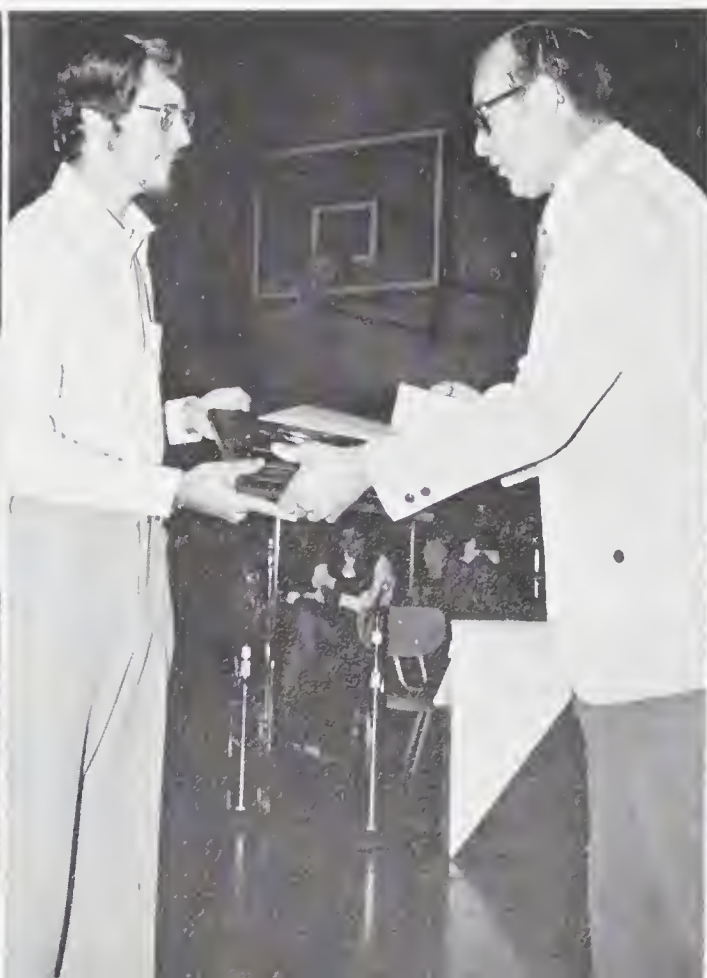

SYMPHONIC BAND MEMBERS—Flutes: Mary Mittet, Lori Carrier, Laurie Bakkensen, Peggy Wardrip, Leslie Macdonald, Sara Fulton, Linda Sjoblom, Regina Miller, Doreen Simonsen, Robbie Meyers. Clarinets: Carole McGhee, Diana Mart, Laura Littlejohn, Angela Yeager, Kathy Gimre, Karen Street, Joni Fudge, Lou Ann Thorsness, Janine McBride, Dawn Fletcher, Patty Johnson, Joyce Carson. Bass Clarinet: Julie Leonhardt. Contra-Bass Clarinet: Paul Butler. Bassoon: Shelley Magnuson. Oboe: Allan Linehan. Trumpets: Jim Huber, Robert Nordstrom, Richard Webb, David Larson, David Peterson, JoAnn Long, Susan Koskela, Gary Moor, Billy Capps, Peter Ohlmann, Kevin Hill, Bruce Connor, Steve Jay. Trombones: Tom Durheim, Jim Neikes, Rod Collman, Bruce Mullins. Baritones: Steve Hendrickson, Dan Johnson, Dan Roberts. French Horns: Bob Baker, Steve Berg, Dennis Duren. Bass Fiddles: Kari Strandjord, Debbie Carlyle. Sousaphone: Scott Long. Percussion: David Huber, Fred Hayes, Roger Lengel, Dave Paschall, Guy Cariglio. Director: Lee Stromquist.

Mary Mittet, the 1st chair flutist got the "Most Improved Player" award. Mary is a Junior.

The John Philip Sousa citation went to Jim Huber, the first chair trumpet player. He was also the director of the Stage Band.

A clarinet player named Karen Street was awarded the "Most Outstanding Sophomore".

Football Crowds Enjoy Pep Band

During Football Season the Pep Band (now Stage Band) was given the use of this truck. It was donated by Bumble Bee. This really helped because they were able to play even in adverse weather.

New Sound Provided By Stage Band

B.E.S.T.—Band European Student Tour had the most fascinating time in Europe. They traveled to Norway, Germany, Finland, Russia, Sweden, and Denmark. They were well received in all of these countries. Their concerts were delightful and the quality of music was of a high standard, thanks to their conductor, James Hansen.

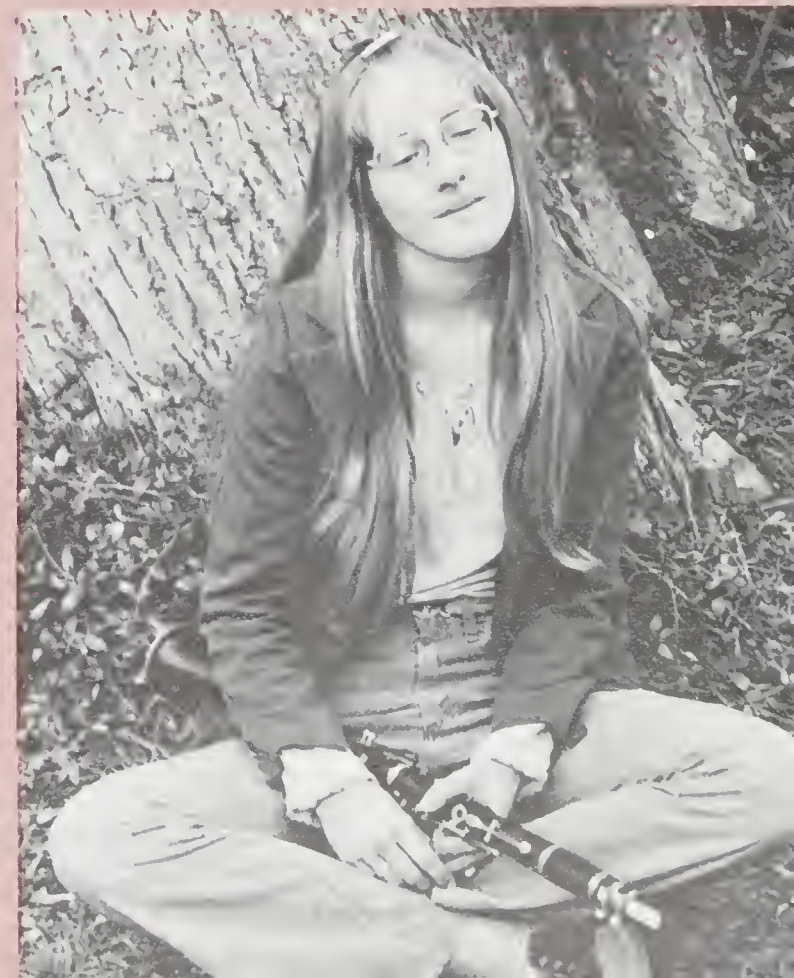

This was an opportunity that many may never have, they got to see the way people lived in these different countries. Even though it took a lot of time and effort to get ready for their tour, they will always treasure the memories.

Astoria High School's Stage Band really put on a show at the State Basketball Playoffs in Portland. They were noted as being the best band there

Dave Huber played with the Stage Band, while doing so he showed his great talent with the drumsticks.

Carol McGhee was selected to tour to Europe with the All Nation Band. A benefit was given for her for the expenses.

Honor Society

Induction

A group of anxious Sophomores waited patiently for the ceremony to begin

st year's President of Honor Society, Jim Huber, presided over the induction ceremony

Mary Mittet serves refreshments to all the members of National Honor Society and their parents

Most likely going over the minutes of a current student council meeting, are Secretary Becky Leback and Parliamentarian, Bruce Mullins. Neil Youstler offers a helpful suggestion, or possibly a ruling fist.

Janet Moore, Treasurer, is not only concerned about the amount of money in the treasury, but how it's spent.

Cathy Christie, Student Body Member at Large, contemplates a quick reply to an amusing (or embarrassing) request.

Discussing how to raise funds for the Y.M.C.A. Pool Drive are the various members and interested students in student council.

Ski Club

Ski Club for 1972-73, took a total of 7 trips; including 5 trips to Multnomah, 1 to Mt. Hood Meadows, and 1 to White Pass, Washington. They had a very good year, for 6 out of 7 of the trips rewarded them with sunny weather. On one occasion, two busses made the journey to Mt. Hood; on all other trips, one bus went.

From the High School, there was a total of 32 girls participating, and 15 boys. Ski Club officers for the year were: Bill Hall, Pres.; Kim Laakso, Vice Pres.; Claudia Hoffman, Sec.; Kathi Jackson, Treas.; and Alan Linehan and Bob Baker, Sgt. At Arms. Ski Club advisor, Mr. Korpela, has already started planning for the coming year. The JayCees will be helping, by providing equipment, money, an exercise program, movies and instructions. With the help of the JayCees, Ski Club will be able to start taking trips earlier in the year.

This year, AHS made up a new name for European Club. A contest was held for students to submit proposed names. FLASH, invented by Carol Mestrich and Dixie Brewer was the decisive winner. This club was made up of all Spanish, French and German students. Their annual banquet was held in early May, and was a great success. Entertainment was provided by the German Band, with skits and singing. All had a wonderful time.

Service Club

Working closely with the athletic teams, Service Club gave spirit and dedication throughout the year. Not only did they serve at the concession stands during the various events, but they took care of the dirty work both before and after games. Sponsored this year by the Service Club was the Cupid Contest, where the Student Body voted for the teacher they considered best suited for "Cupid of the Year". Also sponsored was a Sadie Hawkins dance. Long and hard hours were spent by the girls, and all students should feel a deep gratification toward this fine organization.

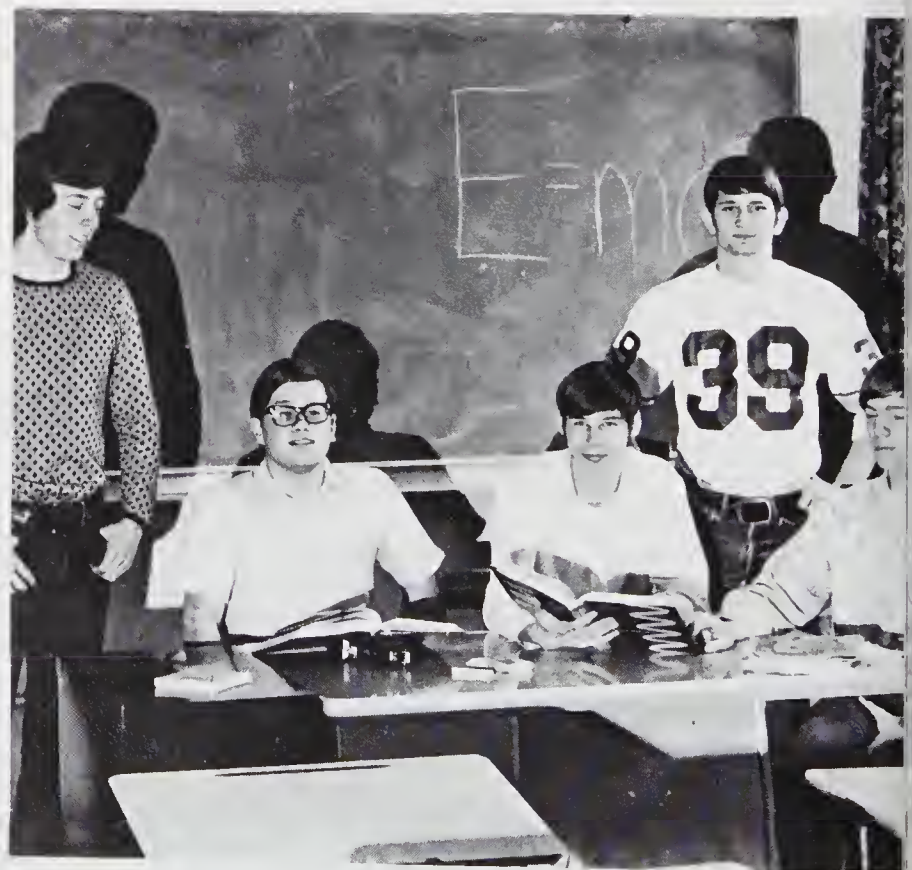

Astoria Hi-Q Team Bows To Sweet Home

The team was coached by Kenneth Chapman. Though Astoria was defeated, Mr. Chapman and the men put in much time and effort to be at their best and make Astoria proud of them. WE ARE!!

Girls' and Boys' State is sponsored by the American Legion. They picked two girls and four boys from Astoria High School. They feel that by sending these students to Girls' and Boys' State they will have a better understanding of how the political system in the United States is run. Pictured below is Susan Goodenberger and Jill Ahola. "A really great experience. It helped me to understand the government better." That was stated by Susan after attending Girls' State. Jill's feelings were much the same. She said, "It was a super good experience, and it was really government oriented."

Assemblies

A representative from Pacific Power spoke to the Student Body on the dangers and safe usage of electric power.

Pat Heelan, Terry Johnson, Heather Rautio, Michele Gray, Mitch Wing, Teresa Youngren, Becky Duoos, Barb Telen, Linda Julin, Julie McGuire, and Jane Roeser line up after their try-outs for Rally and Pepsters

Oregon Senator Robert Packwood talked to the Student Body, explaining his duties and answering the many questions from students and faculty alike.

Junior-Senior Prom

Julie Griffin and Kari Strandjord were chosen Senior and Junior queens for the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom. Julie was escorted by Gary Seeborg and Kari, by Ken Nelson.

"Beneath the Sea" was the theme of the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom.

The court included Junior and Senior girls and their escorts. They were Sue Ackerman, escorted by Scott Holmstedt; Judy Angberg, escorted by John Gjovik; Nina Burkholder, escorted by Rod Collman; Julie Griffin, escorted by Gary Seeborg; and Barb Ridenour, escorted by Phil Brech; Seniors.

The Junior court consisted of Lori Carrier, escorted by Clay Gustafson; Jody Larson, escorted by Wayne Burkholder; Marianne Larson, escorted by Art Olsen; Becky Mills, escorted by Mike Blair; and Kari Strandjord escorted by Ken Nelson.

Fish Hatchery Project Begins

Ecology is spreading around at Astoria High. Last year, the school was given a grant by Teacher Incentive Program, State Department of Education, which was used to fund a fish hatchery. The Student Body also contributed to the project. Mr. Korpela is supervising the Biology Lab assistants working with the fish. Mr. Warner's chemistry class is in charge of maintenance of the quality of the water. The Shop Classes were also involved, with the construction of the facilities.

Five hundred fish were being experimented with, which included creating a new diet, and observing effects on the fish when transferred to a new environment. The students have already learned a great deal about the fish and look forward to continuing their studies. Mr. Jensen filmed the progress of the project. Next year, the hatchery project is to be expanded; the fish will be hatched in the creek, producing a run of its own. So far, raising fish has been successful.

Mr. Korpela, Mr. Thompson from the Junior High, and a student, prepare the cement to support the fence posts surrounding the hatchery

Students from Mr. Johnson's shop class helped the Science Club with the construction of the dam.

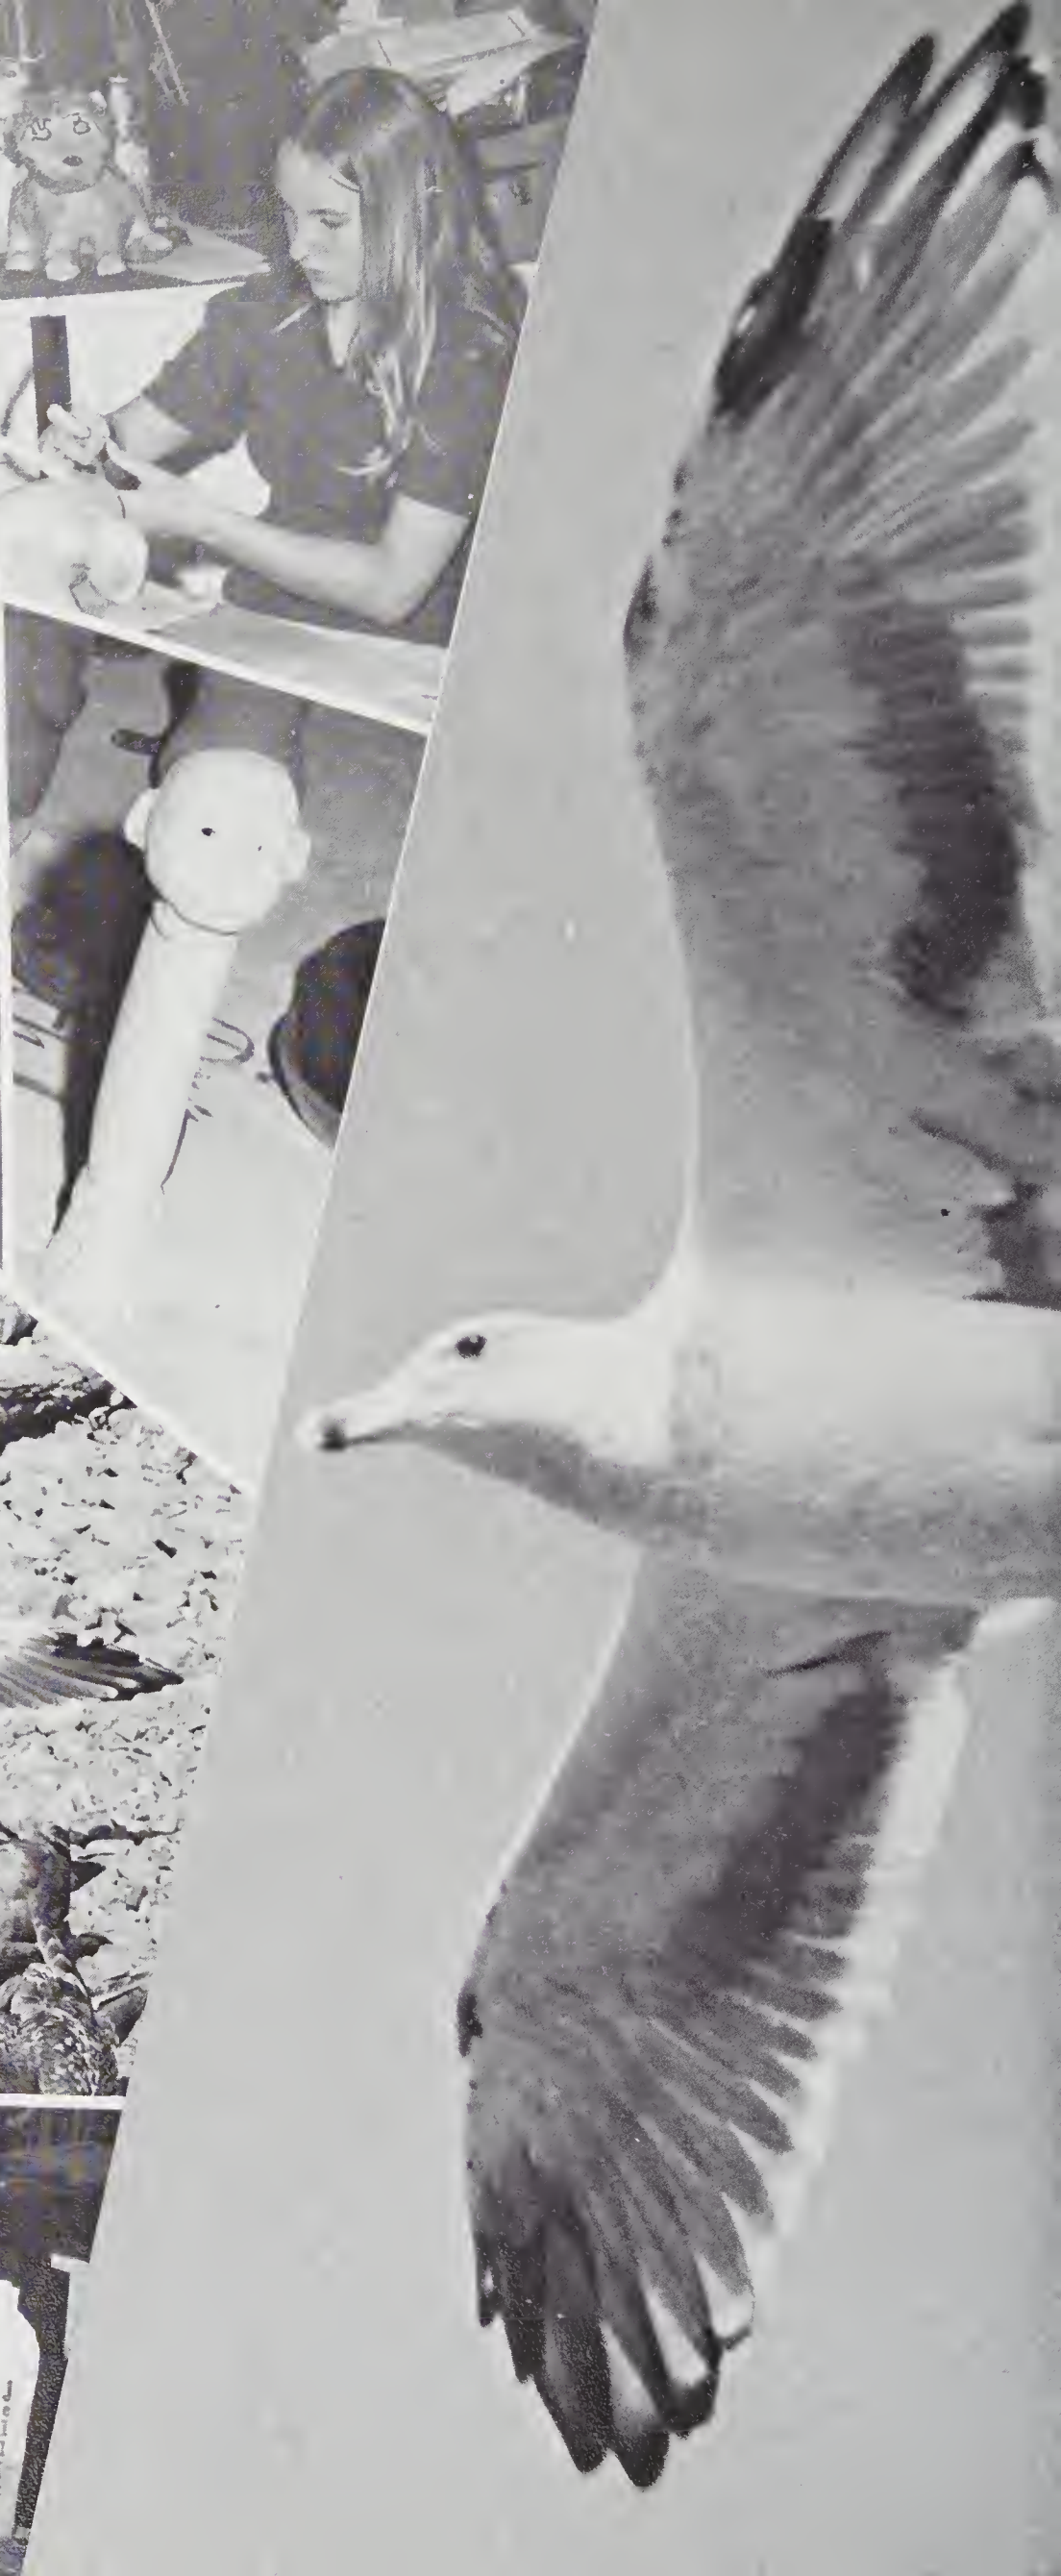

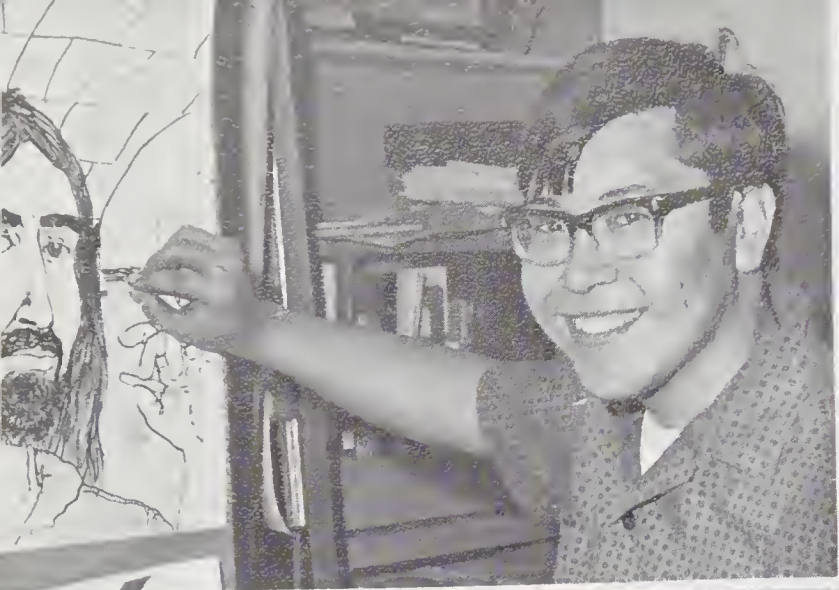

Three Science Club members start to break ground for the fish hatchery. They began it this year and will continue to build on it through the coming year.

Mr. Eldon Korpela, who spent much time and effort competing with teachers from all over the state for the grant to construct the long-awaited fish hatchery, is pictured here right in the swing of his project.

Nancy Hodson rinses out the buckets which were used to transport the fish from their original stream to the fish hatchery.

Creativity is the wind against the wing of a gull,

Thank-You?

Last Night I was dreaming about the speech I would make when I accepted my oscar, how I would thank my family and my friends and my teachers and not name any of them for lack of time...

Last night I was dreaming about the dedication I would write to go in the front of my bestselling novel, how I would thank all the beautiful people who had influenced my life, as well as my writing, and not name any of them for lack of space...

Last night I woke up and remembered I had forgotten to say my prayers, so I thanked God for my family and my friends and my teachers and all the beautiful people who had influenced my life, but, somehow, I had forgotten their names...

The goal for this section was to bring an awareness to the reader, of the creative people existing in Astoria High School. The selections chosen to represent this, were only a small part of a growing group of people. Students in the school are finding these outlets of expression and using them to the fullest extent be it anything from photography to poetry to calligraphy. Creativity is something that has no bounds and can cover so many different aspects. Carol McGhee, above, is one person who has excelled in her particular field, music. Another person, Linda Stephens, below, and Gail Manners, have succeeded in brightening one typical drab staircase with their graphic design.

Last year's Junior class got off to a great start with a cake raffle, which brought in a large amount of money to cover the Homecoming expenses. The Juniors put forth a terrific effort and ended up in second place for the week's competition, after a slight mix-up due to the final totaling of points. Led by their officers, pictured above, President, Ken Nelson; Vice President, Marianne Larson; Secretary, Kathy Gimre; Treasurer, Jeanne Thompson, and Sergeant at Arms, Annette Hallaux, the next project was a pickle sale. The money brought in from this was donated to Susan Davis, whose home and possessions were completely destroyed by fire. The Juniors got into the Christmas spirit by decorating the hall and giving each Senior a candy-cane. They also sold Holly-grams as another money raising project. The Class of '74 was noted for their fantastic spirit at the pep assemblies held throughout the year. In order to raise money for the combined Junior-Senior Prom held in May, the Juniors worked together with the Seniors to put on a dance marathon in March. A prize was given to the couple who danced the longest, supported by local downtown merchants. The Junior class kept up a very active year, not only in the school, but in the community as well.

Seniors. The Class of 1973. An end has come, but a beginning is just around the corner.

For the past three years these 220 students have been a class. The major goal in their lives was a day in June in 1973. Now that day has come and gone, and their days together are over.

The Class of 1973 had a lot to offer Astoria High School, and offer they did. Athletically, academically, and socially, this class gave its all.

To point out a group of people and say they were the ones that made the class what it was, would be unfair. As in any class, there were those who were active and those who were not. But it was the class, as a class, that worked in and for Astoria High School. The Class of 1973 is one that will not be forgotten.

In a way we've come to the end, but in another way, we've only just begun. For what was today is now yesterday, and what was tomorrow is now today.

Above: Scott Holmstedt and Sue Ackerman leave the gymnasium in a mellow mood reflecting the many wonderful times they have had at AHS. Below: Bob Baker and Bruce Mullins, two of the photographers for the Zephyrus, have their picture taken preparing for the graduation ceremonies. To the right: Terry Gantenbein and Luana Ness check to see if their names are spelled correctly on their diplomas.

Arlene Orwick, co-valedictorian, gave words of advice to her classmates and, to the parents, a bit of what to expect from the graduates in her speech, "What It's All About." Marianne Larson, like many underclassmen, honored the graduating seniors with the Baccalaureate Tea. Dwight Phelps directed the choir in a beautiful medley for the seniors at Baccalaureate.

Twelve years of pressure, heartbreaks, and pride suddenly coming to a close. To know it's all over . . . do you give a sigh of relief or shed a silent tear? Jean Morrison shows that when in doubt, smile! To the right: Terry and Luana were among the many Seniors who enjoyed the Senior picnic.

Scholarships and Awards

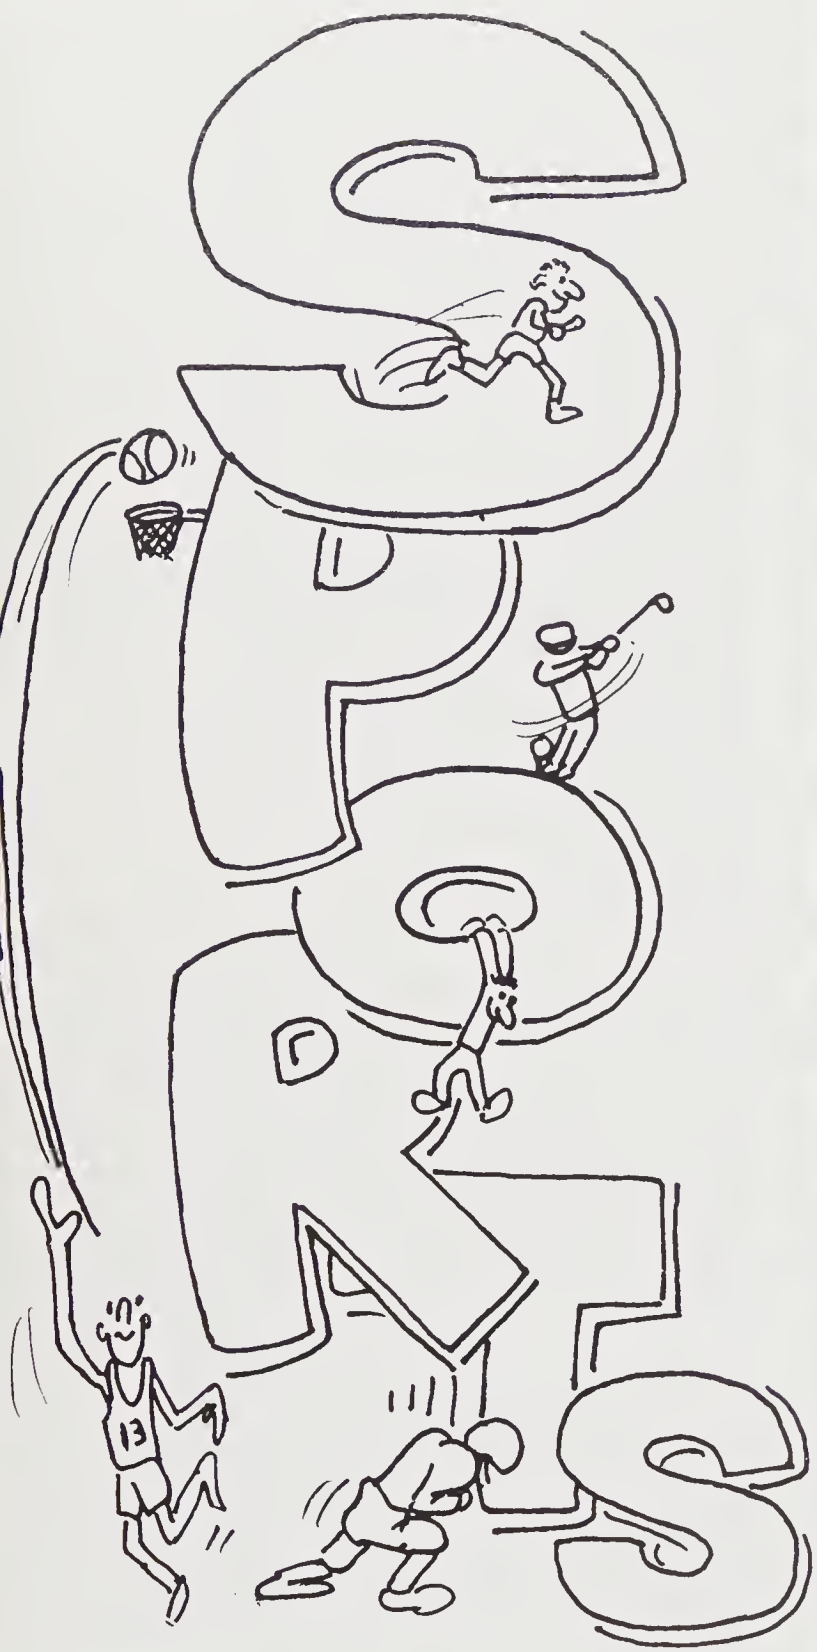

The three Astoria girls who presided over the Astoria Regatta activities last summer were princesses Jan Horgan, Lesa Steinmann, and Carrie Supple.

Last year's Scandinavian Midsummer Festival Court consisted of Judy Angberg, Miss Finland, Sara Fulton, Miss Norway, and Laurie Bakkensen, Miss Denmark. Miss Scandinavia was Judy Eleven seniors were selected as Oregon Scholars from Astoria last year. Those students were Jim Dulcich, Alan Dietrichs, Bill Hall, Bruce Mullins, Diana Mart, Jim Huber, Arlene Orwick, Sue Lancaster, Dana McKinney, Niel Youstler, and Susan Goodenberger.

Arlene Orwick and Jim Dulcich shared Valedictorian honors for the Class of '73. Both had carried 4.0 grade point averages since entering high school and were voted the two most likely to succeed.

It Was A Great Year!

Rally - Linda Julin, Barb Telen, Theresa La-Ferriere, and Kitsy DeSassise. Second row: Pepsters: Judy Angberg, Jill Ahola, Carrie Supple, Becky Mills, Julie Hughes, Sue Hagerup, and Barb Ridenour. Varsity Rally: Sue Ackerman, Fred Hayes, Kathy Pritchett, Terry Gantenbein, and Luana Ness.

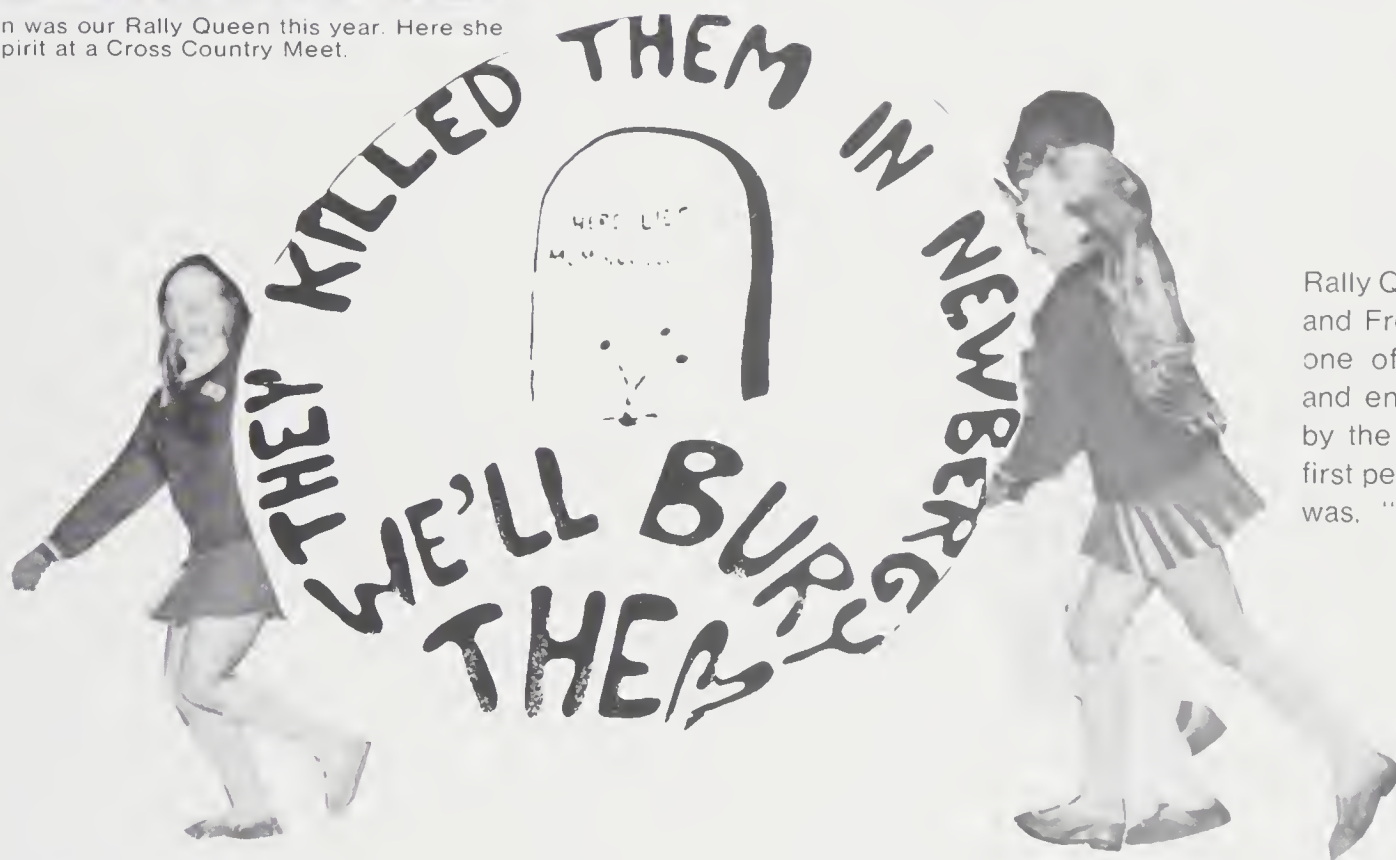

This year's Varsity Rally Squad did a great deal to promote the spirit of the student body of Astoria High, as well as the teams. With the fantastic football and basketball teams that went to state, the rally squad was always there, and never let them down. They worked hard to achieve a quality of perfection. In doing so, they went to a Rally Clinic during the summer in Eugene. Cheerleaders from all over Oregon and Idaho competed. They came home with 1 red, 2 blues, the spirit award for the entire week, and "Grand Champion"! The Varsity Rally Squad lived up to this award during the school year '72-'73.

Sue Ackerman was our Rally Queen this year. Here she showed her spirit at a Cross Country Meet.

Rally Queen Sue Ackerman and Fred Hayes performed one of the most fantastic and enjoyable skits put on by the Rally Squad, at the first pep assembly. This skit was, "I've got SPIRIT".

Gary Angus was on the Varsity Rally Squad for football and a fourth of the basketball season.

Lesa Hall was the alternate for football.

★ PEPPSTERSE

Last year's Pepsters made another clean sweep at the N. C. A. Rally Clinic in Portland. They won 22 blue ribbons and 9 red ones in individual competition, which awarded them the first place trophy for compiled individual achievement. They also won a first place trophy for competition with prepared routines. Finally, the girls were awarded the Spirit Stick for being the most spirited group during the week.

The Pepsters provided the crowds with lots of entertainment during half times and before the games. Their enthusiasm went with the teams to both state tournaments. With the cooperation of Mr. Stromquist and the A. H. S. Stage Band, many new novelty routines were formed. However, the routine which continually received the most response from the crowd was "On Astoria."

J. V. Rally

Theresa, Linda, Barb, and Kitsy

Yelling for the J. V. Football team are. Linda, Terri, Lori, Theresa, and Kitsy

Cheering on the Junior Varsity teams last year was an obvious thrill for seven spirited Sophomore gals. The girls showed much enthusiasm which was easily recognized by the win-loss records of the teams. Making up last year's group was Linda Julin, Barb Telen, Theresa LaFerriere, and Kitsy DeSassise, who headed the squad. Lori Wheatly joined these four during the football season.

A first was marked last year as there was a tie for the alternate position. Karen Niemi and Terri Chisum, who are PICTURED BELOW, were both allowed to take the post, and the games were alternated between the two.

Astoria Harriers Display

Speed and Stamina

For the Cross-Country team and Coach Carl Dominey it has been a very satisfying season this year. They ended with a fine win-loss record, as they placed high in the Regional and District meets. In the Regional Cross-Country meet Astoria did very well, as they placed third overall with 77 points, behind McNary and Corvallis.

Those harriers who finished high in the districts were Steve Hendrickson, Don Heiner, Paul Butler, Dan Heiner, and Dave Peterson followed by John Palmer and Richard Bingham. In the Districts Astoria's team was second only to Silverton. The Tillamook Invitational and the Blue Lake Invitational were both won by Astoria. With a league record of six wins and one loss, Astoria had an excellent season. Steve Hendrickson, a senior, was the captain of the Astoria team and placed sixth out of all the runners in the Regional meet.

Coach Carl Dominey said, "It has been a great privilege being associated with these young men this past season. I am confident that those who come back next year will do well and those who are graduating will continue their successes . . ."

Astoria placed third in Regionals and ending up with a great win-loss record. To the right you see Paul Butler pursuing an opposing runner to place a strong thirteenth in Regionals. Paul is a senior on the Varsity, this is Paul's second year on Varsity.

Steve Hendrickson and Vern Palmrose show strain and endurance by finishing the race first and second. Steve has been a captain for the cross-country team for two consecutive years. Steve won four individual races, and is a member of the 2500 club.

Paul Butler finishes a race at Coffenbury Lake to help Astoria become victorious. The J.V.'s didn't have quite the season the Varsity had but did well in district, by placing fourth. Coach Dominey is delighted with these fellows.

This year's football team had a very successful season with a record of 9 wins, 1 tie, and 1 loss. The team crushed the No. 1 ranked team in the state, Grants Pass, in the quarter-finals, but fell to the Wilson Trojans at the semi-

The Astoria Fighting Fishermen football squad, consisting of only 29 players, did nearly the impossible as they muscled their way to the CVL championship. Then, now knowing who they were going to play in the state quarter-finals, No. 1 or No. 2, came out furious and cleaned No. 1 Grants Pass for a Semi-final berth. The Fishermen landed Jim Dulcich and Scott Holmstedt on the Oregonian All-State teams and in the Journal All-State teams, Ron Middleton made first team both ways at halfback and linebacker. Dennis Gantenbein made second team at quarterback, while Scott Holmstedt landed a third team tight end position. Jim Dulcich made honorable mention linebacker. The Fishermen seated 24 players on all-league. Pictured below are the first and second team selections. FRONT ROW: Al Richardson, Arnie Takko, Raleigh Larson, Ron Walker, Jim Forrester, Dave Paschall. BACK ROW: Terry Gantenbein, Dennis Gantenbein, Jim Dulcich, Scott Holmstedt, Greg Arceneaux, John Gjovik, and Ron Middleton.

Fisherman

The 1973 basketball team landed four people on the All-Coast team. Those included were Marty Bellingham, Dennis Gantenbein, Raleigh Larson, and Jim Dulcich. Raleigh and Jim also were selected for the All-Coast Valley team. There were some games with great individual efforts, but for the most part the squad worked together and everyone contributed greatly. This was the first time an Astoria basketball team has earned a berth in the State Tournament since 1966 and for the second time this year represented Astoria in state playoff action.

J.V. BASKETBALL

This year's Junior Varsity got off to a slow start by losing their first four games. They did finish the season although by winning eight out of their last nine games and ended up with a thirteen and six record.

Richard Wikstrom was team leader in scoring with the help of Bill Orr, Ken Klepp, and the fine floor play of Jay McCallister and Mike Cathcart.

Season

After winning 13 games in a row the Sophs dropped their only game of the season to the Scappose J.V.'s 37 to 23 in a rugged defensive battle. Winning the scoring title was Kent Birdeno with 175 points in 18 games for a 9.7 average, followed by Jeff Shepard with 155 pts. and 8.6 average. Birdeno also led the team in free throw percentage, 76% and rebounds with 151. Shepard followed "The Bird" in FT% with 61%. Bill Laremore was the runner-up in rebounds with 111. Chris Pinkstaff was the field goal champ hitting 55% from the floor, followed by John Reiter at 48%. Shepard led in assists with 43, with Jeff Autencio a close second with 41.

Track Meet

Pat Benton puts the shot in a dual meet. Pat just missed the record in the shot-put, javelin, and discus. He also went to the State Track Meet, qualifying in the shot-put and the discus.

Most Valuable Track man, Andre Baugh wins the 220, way ahead of the rest of the pack. Andre went to the State Meet qualifying in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash.

The 1973 Track Season was outstanding. Some of the Season's highlights were: they beat their arch rival St. Helen's, 76 to 69 in a dual track meet; took 2nd place at the Central Relays; and took 8th place at the State Meet. This made the season fantastic. There were three new school records set this year. Two were made by Andre Baugh and one by Junior Doug Bowlsby. Andre set the 100 yard dash in a time of 9.9 seconds and the 220 yard dash in a time of 22.4 seconds. The other record set was the 180 yard low hurdles, by Doug in a time of 20.7 seconds. Another highlight of the season was Doug Bowlsby winning the State Championship in the 330 yard intermediate hurdles in the State Meet. Record time of 39.0 seconds, lowest time ever. This year's Captains were Andre Baugh and Pat Benton. The Most Valuable Track Trophy went to Andre Baugh.

Young Golf Team Fares Well

Cary Bechtolt was the only senior on the team. He was a 4 year letterman; named on the All-Star Coast-Valley League Team for his junior and senior years; has gone to the State Golf Tournament since his sophomore year; as an individual at the tournament this year, he was in a 3-way tie for 4th place, which placed him on the All-State Tournament Team.

Astoria's Golf Team did very well this year. The Varsity Team placed 2nd at Districts, and were 3rd in the CVL. Two members of the team did well enough to play as individuals at the State Tournament, with Cary Bechtolt tying for 4th place. This is the best any golfer from AHS has done for at least 13 years. The team was very young, with 1 sr., 7 sophs, and 7 freshmen, and should do very well next year.

Jay McCallister was a sophomore who lettered for 2 years. He went to the State Golf Tournament, and it was his second year for being named to the All-Star CVL

Kirby Dean was a sophomore who has lettered for two years in golf.

Pete Edison was a sophomore, who has lettered in golf for two years.

Above: A very important part of the golf game is your putting ability. Both players played very well, and Cary Bechtolt was in a three way tie for 4th place. He was then placed on the All-State Team.

Top right: Helping the teams a great deal during the year were, left to right: Coach Dale Evans, and Golf Pros from the Astoria Golf & Country Club, Bob Gasper and Dave Miller. They were very proud of the team's league record, which was 8 and 3, with an over-all record of 12, 8, and 1. Above: Playing on the J. V. Team were: Rick Mestrich, Gary Berg, Terry Conner, Bruce Conner, Bobby Seppa, Mark Cederberg, Brent Seppa, and Scott Bechtolt. Below: Bruce Conner (center) and Gary Berg patiently wait, as Joyce Benson lines up her putt.

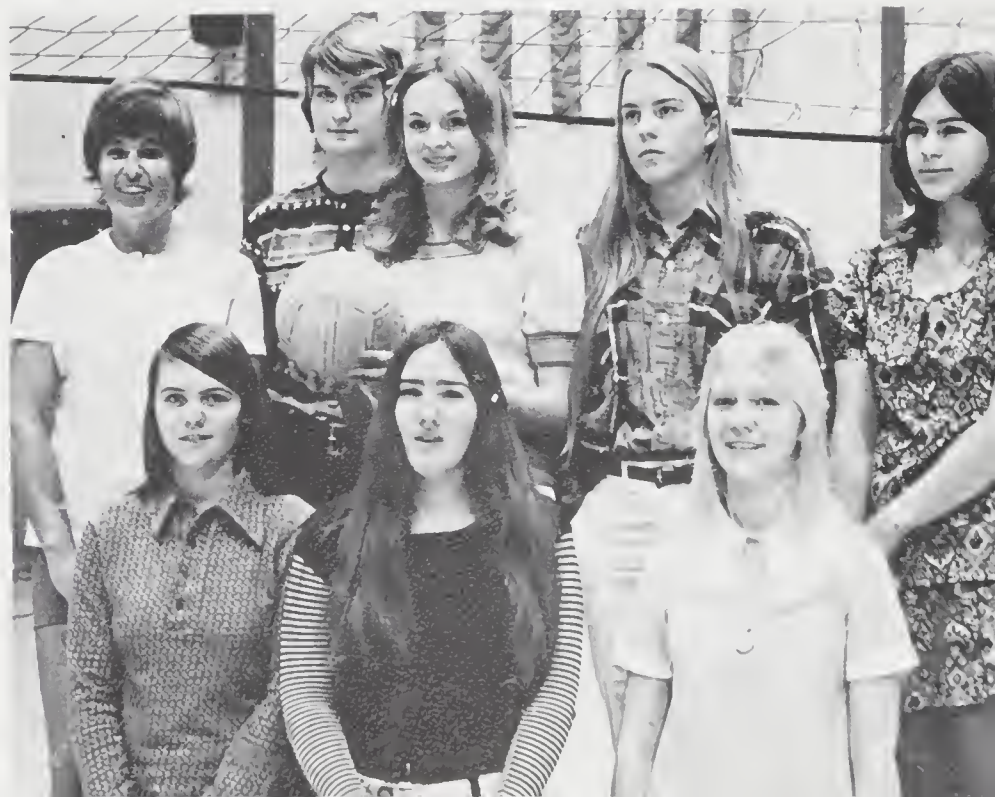

Girls' Athletics

Astoria High School contains two types of girls' athletics. Basketball is sponsored by GAA. Volleyball and Track however, are interscholastic, which means the teams are supported by the school athletic budget, and not by the girls' individual dues, as is Basketball. No matter what kind of sport it was though, the girls competed excellently and completed a great year. Volleyball completed a win-loss record of 12-4, winning our half of the league. Basketball was 12-1, a fantastic record. Spring came, and with it Track, which didn't fair as well because of a small turnout. The "all-in-all" out effort of the girls was outstanding, which made it the very successful year it was.

 Zephyrus Staff 35

Our Sincere thanks to the photographers who have made this yearbook possible. After many years of service, the staff of the Zephyrus would like to thank Mr. Reuben Jensen for his many hours of work and pictures too numerous to count. To Mr. Bowman and his staff at Astoria High School we are grateful. Our special thanks to the students who have taken so many of the pictures used in the annual: Bruce Mullins, Bill Saunders, Rosemary Hammer, Bob Baker, David Anderson, Jennifer Goodenberger, Eric Savage, Scott Holmstedt, and many others. Thanks also goes to Mr. Bingham of Ball's Studio and Mr. Chan of Chan's Studio for their portraits. To Mr. Arthur Allen of Community Press for his time and work we also extend our thanks.
